

Hakob Shahan Andreasyan was born on the 12th of November, 1962, in Meghri.

In 1985 he graduated from Yerevan State Economic University, the faculty of “Accounting and Economic Analysis” with excellence and received qualification of an economist. Served in the Soviet army from 1985-1987.

Hakob Andreasyan participated in several qualification trainings in Armenia and abroad. In 2007 he passed trainings on “Risk Management Basics” held by USAID and received a certificate. According to the certificate received from RA Central Bank, Hakob Andreasyan has a right to take over the following positions: Chief Executive Officer, Deputy Chief Executive Officer, Board Member, Foreign Bank Branch Manager.

Hakob Andreasyan started his banking career in January 23, 1995 in “Ardshinbank” becoming the manager of “Araks” branch. Later, from 05.10.1995-06.28.1996 he was the acting manager of “Spandaryan” branch at the same bank.

From 06.01.1996-07.01.1996 Hakob Andreasyan worked at ACBA Bank (currently Acba Bank OJSC) as a credit advisor. From 07.01.1996 took the position of Deputy Chief Executive Officer in “ACBA-CREDIT AGRICOLE BANK” CJSC and managed loan projects within the frameworks of cooperation with various international financial organizations.

Since 09.09.2006 Hakob Andreasyan became the Chief deputy CEO of “ACBA-CREDIT AGRICOLE BANK” CJSC.

Since 04.28.2014 Hakob Andreasyan is the CEO of “Acba bank” OJSC.

Married, has two sons.