

Styopa Robert Zakinyan was born on the 5th of December, 1976 in Berd, Tavush region.

In 1998 he graduated from Yerevan State Economic University, faculty of Economy with excellence, and received a diploma for the profession “World Economics”. In 2007 defended his thesis received a degree of a Candidate of science in Economics.

From January-May 2005 Styopa Zakinyan did an independent research in Federal Reserve Bank of Boston on the topic “Bank Liquidity Management”.

Participated in several professional trainings such as EBRD “Retail Banking Workshop” and “International Trade and Finance”, IFC “Liquidity Risk Training”, Irish IDI Ltd. “Strategy and management in Banking Program”. In February 2015 received a certificate of Excellence in ACI dealing exams.

According to the certificates received from Central Bank Zakyan has a right to take the following positions: Investment Company or Foreign Investment Company Branch Executive Body Member or Manager, Deputy Chief Executive Officer, Manager of Bank and Loan Organization Units Responsible for Investment Services, Bank Board Member, Foreign Bank Branch Manager.

Styopa Zakinyan started his banking career in July 6, 2000 at ACBA Bank (currently “Acba bank” OJSC) “Armavir” branch as a Credit Officer. Later, from February 6th, 2002-June 2^{n d}, 2003, worked in “Shirak” branch at the same bank. In June 2, 2003 was transferred to ACBA Bank Head Office as a methodology, analysis and strategic planning specialist. In June 1, 2005, became the Head of Strategic Planning and Assets and Liabilities Management Department (from 2008 Assets and Liabilities Analysis Department). From January 1, 2010-January 1, 2014 was the head of Assets and Liabilities Management and Dealing Office, and from January 1, 2014-July 27, 2015 Department of International Relations and Asset and Liability Management.

In July 27, 2015 Styopa Zakinyan took over the position of “Acba bank” OJSC Chief Financial Officer- Deputy CEO.

Married, has a son and two daughters.